

2008 Historic Resource Survey
North Side, City of Granbury

Property No.: 129
619 East Moore
Porter House

Preservation Priority:

High—Contributes to Recommended Historic District
Recommended Historic Landmark/RTHL/National Register Listing (2013)

These are the most significant resources in the survey area and they contribute to local history or broader historical patterns and possess strong association with (a) historic context(s). High priority properties are outstanding or unique examples of architecture, engineering or crafted or vernacular design. These properties retain a high degree of architectural or physical integrity, having few alterations, or can be easily returned to their original character. High priority properties may meet one or more criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places; they are likely to qualify to be designated as Recorded Texas Historic Landmarks and City of Granbury Historic Landmarks.

Construction Date:

Circa 1963

Resource Type/Subtype:

Building/House

Current Owner(s):

Garth A. Porter

Stylistic Influence:

Ranch

Brief History:

According to Nora Porter, this house was custom-built for her and her husband, Garth, in 1963 by builder Troy Kemp of Fort Worth

Area(s) of Significance:

Architecture

Description of Resource:

Brick construction, white brick exterior
Gable roof, composition shingles
Double-hung and casement, aluminum windows
Inset porch, fabricated metal support on limestone pier
Modified L- plan
Slab foundation
One story, 1,638 square feet
Large lot (4 acres) that extends from Moore Street south to Reunion Court, several mature live oak trees

Integrity:

Location, design, materials, workmanship, setting, feeling, association

Possible Threats:

None

Existing Historical

Designations/Protections:

None